

PROJECT UPDATE

August 8, 2018

NEW BOARD MEMBERS APPOINTED

The Brown Hill Keswick Creek Stormwater Project has announced members of a new five-person board, which has assumed responsibility for implementation of the approved Stormwater Management Plan for the catchment, including the construction, management and ongoing maintenance of flood mitigation works as part of the project.

Members of the new Brown Hill and Keswick Creeks Stormwater Board are:

- Judy Choate – Chair
Ms Choate is a lawyer with 28 years of experience in corporate governance, risk management, project management and stakeholder issues, particularly in the property and infrastructure sectors. She currently works as a Director at KPMG Law, as well as being a Non-Executive Director on the National Board of Governors for the College of Law.
- Rachel Barratt
Ms Barratt has worked in South Australian water and natural resource management for over 20 years, in both public and private enterprise. With a Masters in Environmental Studies from the University of Adelaide, she is currently the Chief Executive of the Water Industry Alliance and has extensive expertise with stormwater management issues and stakeholder management.
- Paul Bowler
Mr Bowler has 30 years of experience in leadership roles in construction and infrastructure development across Australia. His experience includes the successful development, procurement and delivery of many major projects, including several projects valued between $200 million and $1 billion.
- Paul Gelston
Mr Gelston is a civil engineer who recently retired as Chief Operating Officer at the Department of Planning, Transport and Infrastructure in SA. He has over 40 years of experience in the delivery of major infrastructure projects at both State Government and Local Government level at the City of Prospect.
- Geoff Vogt
Mr Vogt has extensive experience in the financial services and insurance industries and is currently CEO of Industry Leaders Fund Inc. He is also Chairman of Centennial Park Cemetery Authority, a member of the Eastern Region Alliance Water Board, and a Director of KeyInvest. He was also previously CEO of the Motor Accident Commission in SA.

The Brown Hill and Keswick Creeks Stormwater Board was appointed by and will act on behalf of the five catchment councils – Adelaide, Burnside, Mitcham, Unley and West Torrens – who retain overall responsibility for the Stormwater Management Plan, particularly in respect of its scope and funding.
